MEDICINAL.

Wrinkles Come

To many a face which should still be smooth and fair. Worry doesn't bring them. There are no bars and anxieties to furrow the face. They are the signs of physical suffering, graven by the hand of Pain. It is the saddest result of the disease which affects the womanly organs that they write plainly the sad record of suffering on the face and form. The skin becomes sallow, the cheeks are sunken, the eyes look dull, the body falls away. No woman who values her health or good looks should neglect to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for diseases of the womanly organs. It cures irregularity, inflammation, ulceration and female weakness. It lights up the eye, brightens the complexion, and rounds out the sunken curves of the body.

I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for female weaknesses, writes Mrs. Hannah Perimeter, of Paulsboro, N. J. "I was troubled with bearing down to Dr. Pierce for advice. I tried his 'Favorite Prescription' and six bottles cured me. I feel like a new person, and I thank Dr. Pierce for my health. Life is a burden to me now, and I have told a great many of my friends about the great medicine I took."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, sent free on receipt of stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper covered book, or 31 cents for cloth. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH
Nothing but a local remedy or change of climate will cure Catarrh. The specific is Ely's Cream Balm. It is quickly absorbed. Gives relief at once. Opens and cleanses the nasal passages. Alleviates inflammation. Heals and protects the membrane. Restores the sense of taste and smell. No mercury. No injurious drugs. Regular size, 50 cents; Family Size, $1.00 at Druggists, ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS.
An Old and Well-Tried Remedy.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

VIRGINIA KNIGHTS.

The Louisville Courier-Journal in its account of the Knights Templars concludes in that city this week says:

One of the most enjoyable receptions tendered the Knights and ladies during their visit to Louisville was the one held by the Grand Commandery of Virginia last night. At the door the guests were met by Knights, who escorted them through the headquarters doing all in their power to make their stay enjoyable. The table set in the room just back of the reception room was one of the most sumptuous set by any commandery. It was the receptacle of deviled crabs, frog legs, pickled oysters, champagne, claret, punch, Neapolitan, ice cream, assorted cakes, Virginia pie money pickles, salted almonds. All these edibles were brought by the commandery from their native State. Almost all of the grand officers of Virginia were there, including Right Eminent James E. Alexander, Right Eminent Fred Greenwood, Right Eminent James B. Blanks, Right Eminent John E. Townes, Right Eminent Chas. E. Boett and Eminent Sir E. D. Hotchkiss, who did his duty well as chairman of the entertainment committee. Fifty Virginia ladies of the fairest type helped the Knights entertain. Among them were Mrs. J. E. Alexander, Mrs. Moss, of Newport News, and Mrs. Bryan, of Norfolk. Among the Knights of Virginia were Sir Knight A. A. Maas, the Mayor of Newport News, who took part in the launching and trial trip of the Kentucky. The third oldest commandery, the Grand Commandery of Virginia, occupied a prominent place in the grand parade Tuesday. About 125 Virginia Knights were in line, and the following commanderies of the State were represented.

Richmond Commandery, No. 2, of Richmond; De Molay, No. 4, of Lynchburg; Portsmouth, No. 5, of Portsmouth; Appomattox, No. 6, of Petersburg; Stevenson, No. 8, of Staunton; Lyon, No. 9, of Marion; Old Dominion, No. 11, of Alexandria; Commandery of St. Andrew, No. 4, of Richmond; Grand Commandery, No. 16, of Norfolk; Hampton, No. 17, of Hampton; Oliver, No. 10, of Creed.

The grand officers were—Right Eminent James E. Alexander, No. 11, Grand Commander; Right Eminent J. E. Townes, No. 7, Grand Generalissimo; Right Eminent J. B. Blanks, No. 6, Grand Recorder; Right Eminent Robert E. Withers, No. 4, Past Grand Master; Right Eminent Fred Greenwood, No. 16, Past Grand Commander; Right Eminent John T. Parkham, Past Grand Commander.

The various commanderies were united with the Old Dominion, No. 11, and the line was in charge of Eminent Sir Edward Warren, 10, sr., Past Grand Commander and acting Grand General. At the head of the column and following the Grand Commander of the Old Dominion, No. 11, were Eminent Sir T. H. Allen, Eminent Commander; Sir W. L. Allen, Generalissimo; Eminent Sir Edgar Wardell, Captain General; Eminent Sir H. K. Field, Senior Warden; W. W. Fisher, Past Commander and Grand Standard-bearer.

A Minister's Good Work.
"I had a severe attack of bilious colic, took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two doses and was entirely cured," says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kas. "My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy from the doctor. He used them for three or four days without relief, then called in another doctor who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so discharged him. I went over to see him the next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had been running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I ask him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and he said, 'No.' I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not find relief, but he took no more and was entirely cured. I think it the best medicine I have ever tried." For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will cure a Cough or Cold at once. Coughs, Whooping Cough and Measles Cough with all, Best for Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Grippe, Pneumonia, Consumption and Lung Affections. Gives quick, sure results. Price 25c. Sent by Richard Gibson and all druggists.

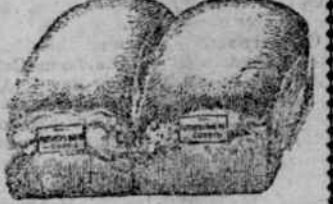

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions, but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

Don't be satisfied with temporary relief from indigestion, Kodol Dyspepsia Cure permanently and completely removes this complaint. It relieves permanently because it allows the true stomach perfect rest. Nothing won't rest the stomach. Nature receives supplies from the food we eat. The sensible way to help the stomach is to use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which digests what you eat and can't help but do you good. For sale by E. S. Laidlaw & Sons.
